Name____________________

Chapter 10, exercise C

C Make a list of ten words chosen at random from a dictionary. In how many cases is there no doubt as to the number of syllables that they contain? Explain the reasons for the doubt in the case of the others.

____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________
____________________________________________________________________